

Timeline 1958 - 2009

1958

Dr Tony Flint and Tony Neill established the firm

Dr Tony Flint

1967-2009

Royal National Theatre, London

Royal National Theatre

Early-1970s

Reconstruction of Milford Haven & West Gate Bridges

1976-Ongoing

Erskine Bridge, Scotland. Strengthening and refurbishment of major cable stayed bridge.

Erskine Bridge

1977

Brian Smith becomes a Partner

Brian Smith

1980

Tony Neill retires

1981 – 1997

Tsing Ma Bridge, HK. Independent design check of 1377m main span suspension bridge.

Tsing Ma Bridge

1981-1986

Baha'i Temple, New Delhi, India

Baha'i Temple, New Delhi

1990

John Evans & Ian Firth become Partners

John Evans

Ian Firth

1985-91

Severn and Wye Bridges. Design of strengthening works

Severn

Wye

1993 - 2000

Ting Kau Bridge Design check of 475m main span cable stayed bridge and construction supervision.

Ting Kau

1993

Tony Flint retires

1996

David MacKenzie becomes a Partner

David MacKenzie

1997

Poole Harbour Crossing competition win, UK. First major bridge design competition in the UK.

Poole Harbour

1997

Brian Smith retires

2000

Stonecutters Bridge competition win, Hong Kong. At the time the world's longest cable stayed bridge.

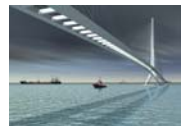

Stonecutters

2001

John Evans retires

2001

Chongming Bridge competition win, Shanghai. To be the world's longest cable stay span.

Chongming Bridge

2002-4

Thelwall Viaduct

Thelwall Viaduct

2002

Bridge of Aspiration, London

Bridge of Aspiration

2003

Swansea Sail Bridge, UK

Swansea Sail Bridge

2007

Passerelle Sèvres, Paris. Boomerang shaped footbridge with 80m long main span.

Passerelle Sèvres

2006

Bosporus Bridges – Appointed to inspect, assess and monitor two 1000m main span suspension bridges

Bosporus Bridge

2007

Westgate Bridge

West Gate Bridge

2008

New Forth Bridge, Scotland. Part of new cable stayed crossing

2008

Flint & Neill joins the COWI Group

2009

National Theatre – New master plan for expansion marking 40 years involvement on this project.

2009

Fehmarn Crossing, Flint & Neill part of team designing 19km long crossing

Fehmarn Crossing